

Labor and Ethics Policy Document

Purpose: Apar is committed to provide a working environment where the human rights of employees are upheld, and employees are treated with dignity and respect. Apar management and all of its employees shall be responsible in conducting business activities in accordance with the Apar's Code of Business Conduct, the Responsible Business Alliance Code of Conduct, and local Human Resources (HR) policies.

Scope and Objective: This Labor and Ethics Policy applies to all employees and suppliers of Apar and shall be implemented in accordance with local labor laws. Apar shall adopt a management system whose scope is related to the content of this Policy.

The management system shall be designed to ensure:

- compliance with applicable laws, regulations and customer requirements related to Apar's business operations.
- conformance with this Policy; and
- identification and mitigation of operational risks related to this Policy.

It should also facilitate continual improvement.

Apar reserves the right to interpret and apply the provisions of this policy, and this policy may be updated at any time.

In the event this policy conflicts with an existing federal, state, or local law, the law will prevail.

Management Review System: Each local Human Resources Lead shall be Apar's designated representative for labor and ethics policies and shall be responsible for assuring and facilitating compliance with labor and ethics laws, regulations, codes, standards, and management systems. The local HR department will work with the appropriate departments to:

- Identify, monitor and understand applicable labor and ethics laws and standards,
- Identify and assess labor practice and ethics risks associated with Amkor's operations and then develop and implement appropriate procedures to manage identified risks,
- Establish labor and ethics objectives and perform a periodic assessment to assess achievement of objectives,
- Create training programs for managers and workers to implement policies and procedures,
- Communicate information about policies and practices to stakeholders, and
- Conduct periodic self-evaluations and maintain appropriate documents and records.

1. Freely Chosen Employment: Every employment with the company is on an at-will basis. Apar does not tolerate any form of forced labor, including debt bondage, indentured labor or involuntary prison, nor any involvement in human trafficking in its business activities. This includes transporting, harboring, recruiting, transferring or receiving persons by means of threat, force, coercion, abduction or fraud of labor or services. Apar will not unreasonably restrict workers' freedom of movement throughout company-provided facilities nor unreasonably restrict workers' entering or exiting company-provided facilities.

As part of the hiring process, employees will be provided with a written employment agreement in English language (native language, if required) that contains a description of terms and conditions of employment prior to the employee joining the company or an expat departing from his or her country of origin. Apar will not hold, conceal, confiscate or deny access by employees to their identity or immigration documents, such as government-issued identification, passports or work permits, unless such holdings are required by law. Employees will not be required to pay Apar or its hiring partners any recruitment fees or other related fees for their employment. All work must be voluntary, and workers shall be free to leave work at any time or terminate their employment without penalty if reasonable notice is given as per worker's contract.

2. No Child Labour: Apar will not employ children below the minimum age for employment according to Singapore law. Furthermore, company shall ensure that persons working on hiring employees have done due diligence of checking the age via NRIC / FIN / Passport to ensure they are of legal working age.

3. Working Hours:

Mondays to Fridays - 0930hrs to 1830hrs

Lunch break – 1 hr

Flexi working: An employee can select an alternate timeframe for work, aside from the standard 9.30am to 6.30pm. The arrangement has been designed to assist employees to better manage their work-life needs. The application of this arrangement is subjected to manager's approval.

Example of alternate timeframes:

- 8.00am to 5.00pm
- 8.30am to 5.30pm
- 9.00am to 6.00pm
- 10.00am to 7.00pm

Work from home: An employee can opt for work from home arrangement in consensus with their reporting manager. This arrangement has been designed to assist employees to better manage their work-life needs.

4. Fair Wages: Compensation paid to employees shall comply with all applicable wage laws, including those relating to minimum wages, overtime hours and legally mandated benefits. Deductions from wages will be as per legal regulations only and any deduction as a disciplinary measure shall not be permitted. For each pay period, employees shall be provided with a timely and understandable pay slip that includes sufficient information to verify accurate compensation paid. Any expat employee will be provided with equal wages, benefits and working conditions.
5. Humane Treatment: There is to be no harsh or inhumane treatment including violence, gender-based violence, sexual harassment, sexual abuse, corporal punishment, mental or physical coercion, bullying, public shaming, or verbal abuse of employees; nor is there to be the threat of any such treatment.

6. Non-Discrimination & Anti-Harassment: Apar ensures equal opportunity for all without discrimination or harassment on the basis of sex, race, age, color, disability, ethnic or national origin, sexual orientation, religion, social or marital status, or other status protected by applicable law. Apar respects employee's and business partners' freedom of thought, conscience and religion. Apar is committed to gender equality and believes that equal work deserves equal pay. Apar does not tolerate any acts of sexual harassment or other forms of discrimination or harsh treatment. Apar encourages all employees and business partners to report and remedy harassing workplace conduct with the goal of eliminating such conduct quickly and effectively. Apar has established an Ethics committee.
7. Freedom of Association & Collective Bargaining: Trade union or collective bargaining is not applicable to Apar or its business as per the local legislation and hence this is not applicable.
8. Business Integrity: The highest standards of integrity are to be upheld in all business interactions. Apar shall have a zero-tolerance policy to prohibit any and all forms of bribery, corruption, extortion, and embezzlement.
9. No Improper Advantage: Bribes or other means of obtaining undue or improper advantage are not to be promised, offered, authorized, given, or accepted. This prohibition covers promising, offering, authorizing, giving, or accepting anything of value, either directly or indirectly through a third party, in order to obtain or retain business, direct business to any person, or otherwise gain an improper advantage. Monitoring, record keeping, and enforcement procedures shall be implemented to ensure compliance with anti-corruption laws.
10. Disclosure of Information: All business dealings should be transparently performed and accurately reflected on the Apar's business books and records. Falsification of records or misrepresentation of conditions or practices in the supply chain are unacceptable.
11. Intellectual Property: Intellectual property rights are to be respected; transfer of technology and know-how is to be done in a manner that protects intellectual property rights.
12. Fair Business Advertising and Competition: Standards of fair business, advertising and competition are to be upheld. Appropriate means to safeguard customer information must be observed.
13. Protection of Identity: Programs that ensure the confidentiality, anonymity, and protection of supplier and employee whistleblowers are to be maintained, unless prohibited by law. Apar has communicated the process during induction to its employees to be able to raise any concerns without fear of retaliation.
14. Privacy: Apar is committed to protecting the reasonable privacy expectations of personal information of its employees and everyone we do business with, including suppliers and customers. Apar complies with PDPA regulations.
15. Reasonable sourcing of minerals: This is not applicable to Apar or its business and hence is not applicable.
16. Contractors and Supplier Requirements: Beyond observing these requirements in its own operations, Apar requires that its contractors, subcontractors, suppliers and their sub-suppliers adhere to the requirements of this Policy. Suppliers that fail to adhere to these requirements may be subject to sanctions, including, but not limited to, termination of their agreements with Apar for default.
17. Relationship to Apar's Code of Conduct and Ethics: This Policy is intended to supplement and strengthen Apar's commitment to human rights under its existing Code of Conduct and Ethics.

All Apar employees and contractors are offered training during their induction on the provisions of the Code of Conduct and Ethics, covering the provisions of this Policy. To support compliance with this Policy, Apar encourages its employees to report any concerns regarding potential violations of this Policy, or any related law or regulations. Reports can be made without fear of retaliation.

Revision Log
Rev #	Rev Date	Revision Description	Doc Author	Approver
1	1-Mar-2022	Creation of Labor & Ethics policy	Rekhansh Chopra	Sanyukta Vohra